

Trust Management appoints Anne Edwards as General Manager Finance

Anne Edwards Newly appointed General Manager Finance

We are pleased to advise that Anne Edwards has been appointed to the role of General Manager Finance following Shane Coward's shift into the role of General Manager of Trust Management.

Anne commenced in April 2015 and will be meeting with our Financial Services clients in the near future.

Anne joins us from the New Zealand offices of Swiss bank, UBS where she was Associate Director for the past 13 years. Prior to UBS, Anne was an Audit Manager for PWC both in New Zealand and the UK.

In her roles at PWC and UBS, Anne has developed a wealth of experience in the financial services sector, including working with institutional clients and charitable trusts. Anne also guided UBS through the transition to New Zealand equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (NZ IFRS)

Having worked in audit for many years, Anne is fully conversant in all aspects of accounting and auditing standards, and is used to managing high performing financial services teams.

Anne is a Chartered Accountant (CA) and holds a Bachelor of Commerce from Audencia Nantes, France and an MBA from Bowling Green State University, Ohio, USA.
